

PUTTING ON THE ARMOUR OF GOD!

My Fellow Sapiens!

As the meek amongst us hustle our way toward a great inheritance, we glance about and see the flickering embers of The Parent Corporation and its three cornered stool beginning to topple:

The Vatican, The Crown and The District of Columbia.

I shan't bore you with details, suffice to say the long vaunted re-set is underway and is now an energetic tug o' war between a fictitious realm of the Davos salamander-class and an organic, sentient realm of hereditary claimants, true collaterals and genesis treaties which bind fact to history and history to fact. It'll take more than a Jesuit in horsehair vest to wriggle out of this one.

Governments will soon enough be exposed for what they have ever been, a weaponised temporal arm of the Egregore. Once the generational crime syndicate which engendered central banking hegemony and enslavement over humanity is unmasked (pun intended) there will be a reckoning. The Christed ones are awakening en-masse and the backdrop to our dystopian world will be flicked back to the bowels of Hades. Just know that to be so, and proceed with caution. Technocrats and bureaucrats are still wielding their statutory white-noise at the living men and women of the living soil, and they are dangerous. Like the Komodo dragon, a mere grazing of tooth or claw will deposit its lethal bacteria, which in turn will lead to a slow-kill. The dragon is patient, and will follow its victim for days, months, until you weaken and fall. Just like the hundreds of millions of souls being shoehorned into penury and misery by tax heisting, relentless penalties and slow-death, administered by a transnational public health sector in league with AgroChem and BigPharma sponsors!

But the effectivity of this lethal dragon called mind-control (govern-ment) depends entirely on one factor: your obedience.

Obedience determines the 'profit & loss' margin on the audit sheet of life. Each one of us must now simply step fully into our be-ing and know-ing and learn the exquisite art of irreverence, as though our lives depend upon it. Which they almost certainly do.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. 12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Can any amongst us argue now that (transnational elements within) all governments of the world are now the very enemy at our gate and the enemy within: committing deception, fraud, malfeasance, extortion, kidnap, murder, manslaughter, genocide and treason. All of the highest crimes elucidated by thousands of years of civilization amounting to the status quo.

Italy has begun to shrug the devil off it's back, with businesses reopening and people reminding themselves that when government tyranny reaches a zenith it is public duty to disobey and to turn the canon. The Peruvian high Court has ruled that Soros, Gates and the Rockefellers et al are responsible for the pandemic vaudeville. A vaudeville which, over the last year, clambered off the Baroquian stage and stole its way into our homes and businesses, our bodies and our souls.

Gorillas too apparently. The gorillas in San Diego zoological park have tested positive for Corona! whilst in London good serfs are instructed by the Metro newspaper that "careless talk costs lives" and folks shouldn't stop to mingle or socialize on the street, because mingling is tantamount to premeditated murder. The rationale being that a virus so virulent that you need to get tested to see if you have it, might leap through the nappy on your face, defying all laws of physics and medical science, and infect strangers. Oh yeah, and “the worst is yet to come”.

If you don't comply you are blocked from moving freely about the surface of the earth....or something like that. Which raises the curious conundrum that: if you don't wear a mask they won't let you in to the clinic or hospital building to get the vaccine. Which of course raises even more vexatious notions like: how is it that there is no cure for a virus which can be killed by hand sanitiser gel and soap? You are invited to work the answers out for yourself whilst picking your way over the piles of dead bodies in the street, redolent of the Black Plague in the Middle Ages. Or, as another delightful meme exhorts: “Give me liberty or give me death! Unless there is a virus with a 99.6% recovery rate, in which case strip me of my freedoms, my job, my constitutional rights, and put me under house arrest until you patent a chemical cocktail which genetically modifies my genes, rendering my progeny sterile (and dopey as fu#k), staring into the middle distance like apocalyptic zombie-drones waiting on Plaedian starships to rescue them”.

In closing, please brothers and sisters, do remember the words of Lincoln, when he warned: “We the people are the rightful masters of Congress and the Courts, not to overthrow the Constitution but to overthrow the men who would pervert the Constitution”.
